

Hail Damage

in the

July 17 Storm

Barn damaged by hail and wind during the July storm, 10 miles northeast of Moose Jaw.

Cat-tails cut down by hail, 12 miles southwest of Regina Beach.

Dr. R. Nero examines a crop completely destroyed by hail on a farm northeast of Moose Jaw.

Dr. R. Nero examines 44 ducks and one willet killed on a large slough southwest of Regina Beach.

Aspen poplar splintered by the storm, six miles south of Regina Beach.

Hailstones collected at Boharm after the storm of July 17, 1957.