

Black Tern Nesting at "Brown's Slough"

by Doug Gilroy, Regina

In the summer of 1960 a colony of Black Terns nested at "Brown's Slough," two miles west of Condie, where I took the above photographs on June 19. Male and female took turns incubating the eggs at approximately 15-minute intervals.