

Birds With Long Noses

by Doug Gilroy, R. R. #2, Regina.

Photos from kodochromes
Marbled Godwit on nest near Brora, Sask., June, 1958.

Willet on nest near Brora, Sask., June 4, 1958.

In a competition for long noses the Marbled Godwit clearly wins the prize among birds in this rural Regina area! Both these birds must, of course, take second place to the Long-billed Curlew, which is occasionally seen here.