

YELLOW HEDYSARUM

Photo by the late Dr. W. C. McCalla

Hedysarum sulphurescens Rydb.

The flowers of this hedysarum are sulphur yellow, creamy yellow, or even whitish, whereas our other species have purplish or rose flowers. It is found in the open grasslands of the foothills or the mountain woods of southwestern Alberta.