

THE BLUE JAY

Published quarterly by the Saskatchewan Natural History Society

Founded in 1942 by Isabel M. Priestly

Authorized as second class mail and for payment of postage in cash
P.O. Department, Ottawa

Vol. XXIV, No. 1

MARCH, 1966

Pages 1-52

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOR THE SAKE OF ABSTRACT VALUES . . . , Editorial	Cover 2
PERSONAL RECOLLECTIONS OF SOME EARLY SASKATCHEWAN NATURALISTS, Robert D. Symons	2
BIRDS
An extension of the known range of the Poor-will in Saskatchewan, Clive Elliott	7
Saskatchewan's first specimen of the Blue-winged Warbler, Frank Brazier	9
The 1965 fall warbler migration at Regina, Margaret Belcher, Alvin Binnie and Betty Binnie	10
Mist netting at Saskatoon, autumn 1965, C. Stuart Houston and Mary Houston	15
Swallow mortality at Moose Mountain, Spencer G. Sealy	17
Territorial aggression between a dragonfly and hummingbird, Richard S. Miller	19
Crows warming themselves at a chimney, Emerson A. Stoner	19
Recollection of a Peregrine Falcon - pigeon pursuit, S. Jordheim	20
Second report on Saskatchewan Falconry Association banding program, Glen A. Fox	20
Whooping Crane population report (U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service release)	21
Notes on birds and other animals in the Slave River - Little Buffalo River area, N.W.T., Robert E. Stewart	22
Twenty-fourth annual Saskatchewan Christmas Bird Count, 1965, compiled by Mary Houston	32
MAMMALS
Notes on the carnivorous tendencies of some sciurids, Spencer G. Sealy	37
Return of Bison to Manitoba (Dept. of Northern Affairs and National Resources release)	39
PLANTS
A new species of Oxytropis for Alberta, Robert K. Shaw	40
A most versatile shrub, Gordon Smith	40
Owl's-clover, Keith F. Best	41
JUNIOR NATURALISTS, edited by Joyce Deutscher	42
THE BLUE JAY BOOKSHELF
Host relations of the parasitic cowbirds, by Herbert Friedmann, reviewed by C. Stuart Houston	44
NOTES FROM LETTERS	45
SOCIETY NEWS
Saskatchewan Natural History Society Summer Meeting, June 10-12	50
Three photo studies, W. Yanchinski	51
On the trail, sketch by Robert D. Symons	52
Donation to the Society	52

Any material printed for the first time in the Blue Jay may be reproduced without permission. Credit lines will be appreciated.