

Suggestions from the Blue Jay Booksh

Sub P.O. 8, 1210 - 7th Avenue N., Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. S7K 2W2

AVONLEA YESTERDAY AND TODAY: Archaeology and Prehistory. Edited

Leslie B. Davis. 1988. The proceedings of a posium held in Regina this volume contains p which deal with every aspect of the Avonlea ma culture whose type site is located 50 miles sou Moose Jaw in southern Saskatchewan. 313 pp. $2 softcover

OUT OF THE PAST: Sites, Digs and Artifacts in the Saskatoon Area. Edited

Urve Linnamae and Tim E. H. Jones. 1988. This presents a major collection of papers on archae in the Saskatoon area but its material is of interest Saskatchewan residents. It is a solid contribution ongoing effort of interpretation and presenting the of our past. 191 pp. $15.95 softcover

FROZEN IN TIME: Unlocking the secrets of the Franklin Expedition. Owen B and John Geiger. 1988. From the ice-shrouded gr three 19th-century seamen reveal the chilling fate doomed Arctic expedition. A superb account color photographs of the grave sites. 179 pp. $9 hardcover

WOLVES. Candace Savage. 1988. A photographic essay of the wolf, once the widely distributed land mammal in the w Together the dramatic photographs, maps and ser text create a celebration of wolves and serve reminder that the reality of nature is infinitely fascinating than myth. 159 pp. $35.00 hardcover

OSPREYS: A natural and unnatural history. Alan F. Poole. 1989. In a clear entertaining style, the author tkes an up-to-date lo the natural history of this popular bird. The osp a major symbol of international conservation, w populations once threatened but now restored in New England and Scotland. Includes photo sketches. 272 pages. $34.00 hardcover.

THE ARCTIC WOLF - LIVING WITH THE PACK. L. David Mech. 1988. This

docuements the authors experiences with the wolf on Ellesmere Island and provides val docuementation of wolf behaviour and of variou dents in the life of the wolf pack. 100 full color p 128 pages. List price of $19.95; Special price of $ softcover.